

A New Cinderella

One day at midnight, I was in a dream. When I woke up, I found myself in an old house. This house was like a building half a century ago. I saw four ladies here. One of them wore very old and dirty clothes. She was called Cinderella. She had two sisters and a stepmother, but they were not kind to her. I became her sister's friend.

After a few days, we got a letter. The letter said the prince invited all the noble families to a ball. We were thinking about what we would wear to the ball. Cinderella knew that news. When she finished her housework, she wanted to make a new dress for herself. She didn't have any beautiful fabric, so I gave her some money to buy some attractive fabric.

On that day, we were ready to go to the ball. When Cinderella came out from her room in a new beautiful dress, everyone was shocked.

"What is going on?" "Where do you get this dress? How do you get so much money to buy fabric?" They were very angry. They used a cutter to tear her dress into pieces. Cinderella was very sad. We were then on our way to the ball.

Suddenly, a little fairy appeared to help Cinderella. The little fairy used her magic to make a pumpkin carriage and a new dress. Also, the dress came with a pair of glass shoes. After Cinderella was ready for the ball, the little fairy said, "Remember to leave the ball before 12 o'clock because after that you will become what you are like before."

Cinderella arrived at the ball. She attracted everyone and all the people were looking at her. The prince invited Cinderella to dance. They were so happy. Her stepmother, sisters and I were jealous of her. It was close to 12 o'clock. She thought of what the little fairy said. Cinderella ran away from the castle so quickly that she left behind a glass shoe.

The prince made an order to find this lady and he wanted to marry her. He spent a long time looking for her. Finally, he came to Cinderella's house. Her sisters and stepmother went to try on the shoes, but it was not their size. They locked Cinderella in her room. They didn't want Cinderella to come out. Afterwards I tried this pair of shoes. I felt surprised because it fitted me. The prince couldn't remember Cinderella's face. He decided to marry me. On the wedding with the prince, suddenly I woke up. It was seven o'clock in the morning! Time to go back to school!
