

4A Sharon Chan

Film Review

King Kong (2005)

The greatest adventure film I have ever watched

Rating: ★★☆☆☆

Suitable for: teenagers and adults

Reviewed by: Sharon Chan

This film is a remake of the 1933 film of the same name. It is produced by Universal Pictures and directed by Peter Jackson.

The film takes place in New York City in 1933. It is about an ambitious filmmaker (Carl Denham), leads his crew to a lost island of the Indian Ocean called 'Skull Island'.

On the island, they find many undiscovered and mysterious animals, including the huge Gorilla-King Kong. When it sees the actress, Ann Darrow (Naomi Watts), it catches her to live with it. When Ann is attacked by those giant and fierce animals like dinosaurs, King Kong will appear to save her at once even it is injured. Ann finally realizes that Kong is nice and kind to her. However, Carl catches it and regards it as a cash cow.

There is an impressive scene about even King Kong is suffering from all kinds of torment, it still cares about Ann. Even others are scared and try to kill it; it still tries its best to save Ann. Its death is a poignant ending.

This touching and meaningful adventure film tells us 'conflict and war cannot solve the problem.' Also, people say 'beauty brings disaster'.