An Unforgettable Rescue   By 5D Leung Ka Chun William (17)

'Dumbledore! We created a miracle during the typhoon. This rescue is an unforgettable experience. We are going to make history!' Mark said excitedly. So, what did they do?

In 2018, super Typhoon 'Fishball', which is known as one of the strongest typhoons Hong Kong has ever had, slammed into the Pearl of the Orient! All emergency forces were standing by. Dumbledore and Mark were partners to be in charge of the Ambulance A124 and dealt with the calls from patients.

Suddenly, a voice was heard on the radio. 'A124, please go to 1st Peak Villa, an old man is suffering from a heart attack, code red!' the commander said. 'A124, roger!' Mark replied calmly. Mark was 35 years old. He has black hair and steely eyes. He was lean and muscular because he loved doing gym so much.

'What is that thing ahead of us, Dumbledore?' Mark wondered. 'It looks like the tree has blocked the way, bad luck!' Dumbledore thought for a while. 'We need to switch to our feet!' Dumbledore said. Under a pair of black glasses, he revealed a determination to help.

'Dumbledore, how far do you think it is?" Mark worried. It was because his commander told them the patient was dying. They needed to get to 1st Peak Villa as soon as possible. 'Here we are, look at your right,' Dumbledore said.

'Shock advised, stand clear! Charging, shock delivered!' the AED announced. 'Mark, check the patient. His ECG seems to return to normal,' Dumbledore said in a hurry. 'I think we can bring him to the hospital, his condition has now been stabilized,' Mark said.

They braved the wind and rain and brought the patient back to the hospital. The wind was wailing. They could feel the cold and pain when the rain hit their faces hard. Also, they tasted some rainwater. It was sweet.

'Doctor, his condition is stable, CGS 3-3-3, BP 125/85, SPC 95%,' Mark reported. "OK, let me take over,' the doctor said.

When they left the hospital and went back to the ambulance, Mark asked Dumbledore, 'Is that Li Ka Shing?' 'What?' said the dubious Dumbledore. 'The patient is Li Ka Shing! The patient is Li Ka Shing! We saved his life! Can you believe it?' said Mark in a crazy excitement. Yes, they saved Li Ka Shing, the richest man in Asia. They made history!
