

Tom and The Girl

4C William Wong (17)

One day, Tom was going to school in the morning. He met a girl in the classroom. The girl was a new student who had just moved to the district. She was pretty with long straight hair and big dark eyes.

'She is my dream girl,' Tom thought. Therefore, he introduced himself to the girl during recess. He asked her out several times, but she refused and said that she had already got a boyfriend. She said that she could be his friend.

Finally, Tom gave up and walked away. He thought, "She's probably not nice anyway."

It is easy to despise what you cannot have.