Letter of Advice

Dear Peter,

After reading your letter, I know you are going through a hard time. I understand your problems and difficulties since I used to be a teen too. As your aunt, I want you to know that you are not alone and I am always here to help you.

To start with, you said that you always failed those quizzes. If I were you, I would set a timetable for revision and start the revision earlier.

Second, you told me that you keep having thoughts of killing yourself. You've scared me and I want to tell you that to escape will make things much worse. You should keep calm and do your best to overcome your difficulties. Don't think in a negative way. Always believe in yourself.

Remember no one is perfect. Everyone has some hard times. Feel free to write to me again if you have any problems. I am here to help you.

Love,
Aunt Anna
