

The Meatloaf world

Written By Heiley Chan, 1C, 1

Meatloaf is a very common dish at my home. I have eaten different types of meatloaf but I think Meatloaf World is the best.

I tried meatloaf in Man Shing Restaurant. The salted egg steamed meatloaf there was called the Pyramid meatloaf and Meatloaf mountain. When I was still a kid, my grandpa and grandma often brought me there for dinner. The meatloaf is soft and crisp. It's not heavy, but light and the salty taste comes from the crystal-grained salted egg yolk on the top of 'the mountain'. The sweet soy sauce at the foot of the meatloaf mountain brings the meatloaf to the next level. It enhances the taste of the meat and is very delicious.

Why do I like this? Because it has the taste of my childhood and every time I eat meatloaf, I always think of my grandpa because he passed away when I was very young. So I think this restaurant and the dish are very meaningful to me.
