

My Holiday Plan by Ian Wong Chi Him 2E

Due to the covid-19 pandemic, we were not able to travel for a long period of time. I felt excited once the government announced that we were allowed to travel again. I wanted to go to the Leaning Tower of Pisa in Italy with my family, because I wanted to experience this world-famous sightseeing spot and understand more about its flaws and maintenance. I thought it would be fun.

We packed some clothes, shower utensils, sunscreen lotion, insect repellent, a digital camera, etc. I was planning to buy some souvenirs such as postcards or keychains at the Leaning Tower of Pisa.

We took the Airport Express to the airport. While we were on the way to the airport, our family kept discussing the trip. The airport in Italy is smaller than Hong Kong's airport. I really enjoyed the flight. I felt excited and a bit anxious when the flight took off, but when it came to landing, I felt excited because I could see the Leaning Tower of Pisa through the window of the aeroplane.

When we arrived, the first thing we did was to book a local tour at the hotel. The reason for having a tour guide was because we could have a better understanding about the building history and maintenance of the Leaning Tower of Pisa. On our first evening, we stayed in the 4-star hotel and had dinner in its restaurant. The buffet was delicious. The entrance of the hotel was beautiful, and the bed was very comfortable. We could see the Leaning Tower of Pisa from the hotel, and it looked beautiful in the evening.

The next morning we walked to the Leaning Tower of Pisa with our tour guide, and there were so many visitors. We took many photos, and one of the photos I took was pretending to try to hold the Leaning Tower of Pisa up and stop it from falling down. After we'd taken the photos, we went inside the tower and climbed to the top. The view from up there is amazing. After that the guide took us to an enormous church that's near the tower. After the day tour, the guide took us to eat pizza at a local restaurant. The food in the restaurant was delicious.

I think it is important for people to take holidays and travel abroad, because they can have a rest and also gain more understanding about the culture and history of other countries. I think the objective of a holiday is to let people rest and have no need to do any work until the holiday is finished. My objective for my holidays is to rest, learn and have fun together.
