

Becoming Famous

“No, that’s not right! You should sing louder,” Coach Delu said to Juno Hung. “Don’t you want to be famous?”

It started when Juno Hung was walking on the street and he stopped to look at a poster. It was about a talent show on a stage. At the same time, Juno’s twin friends, Alpha Ruuto and Beta Ruuto, also stumbled upon the poster. “Let’s join this together!” said Juno excitedly. Alpha and Beta both agreed shortly after. They then dashed to Juno’s home to start practicing. They also invited Delu to be their coach.

“Aren’t you good at singing?”

“Yes! I am! Then you two will be the dancers!” Juno suggested happily to Alpha and Beta. “But we only have a few weeks left.”

After a few weeks, Alpha and Beta have learned the most difficult move. “Nice one!” Coach Delu said. “Let’s hope it to be a flawless run!”

“Let’s go!” The three boys said enthusiastically.

On the big day, the boys were excited to show everyone their talent. Juno began the song with some sweet vocals.

After about 20 seconds, Alpha and Beta joined in with very powerful and symmetrical dancing. Also, Juno raised his volume to sing very loudly and clearly at the same time.

However, during the last 5 seconds, an accident happened. Alpha and Beta tripped over each other’s legs. Juno, who finished his part, was shocked with his eyes and mouth wide open.

“Oh, no!” Juno screamed after the performance. Luckily, the twins’ injuries were very mild, and they recovered in less than a day.

While all of this was happening, little did the boys know that their performance was voted as the best one.

They eventually found out this good news. “We did it!” all three said happily.
