To my mum, dad and my brother David,

How are all of you? I'm having a very good time in Tokyo. I'm currently writing a postcard to you from Hotel Nikko, where we'll be staying during our trip abroad.

On the first day after we arrived, we went to the Tokyo Skytree. What a spectacular view of the city! I took some photos up there - I'll show you when I get home. Soon after, we did some sightseeing around the Sumida River, near the Skytree. Our group (No. 7) rented bikes from a store on the north bank and cycled along the river. It was very fun - I think you would've liked it too!

On the second day, we hiked up Mount Fuji, the tallest mountain in Japan. Since it was already cold, I didn't need to bring a towel. Although I was very tired from the trek, the stunning scenery was definitely worth it! That night, we also tried some local cuisine at a busy night market. I had a variety of sushi, Takoyaki (deep-fried octopus balls), and ramen. Everything was so tasty - I loved all the different flavours!

We still have two more days before we head home. Tomorrow, we'll visit the Odaiba Science Museum, and after that, we plan to explore Ginza. See you again soon!

Love,

Leo
