

Meeting My Sports Idol

I love playing badminton and I am a member of the school team, but I think I am not good at playing it. So, I always want to improve my badminton skills. Lin Dan is the best badminton player in the world and he is also famous in China. I have always looked up to Lin Dan and look forward to meeting him.

One day, I found out where Lin Dan was staying when he came to Hong Kong. I thought this was a good chance to see him. But I didn't know how to meet him face to face and chat with him. Suddenly, a crazy idea popped up in my mind. Why didn't I create a scene to catch his attention? Then I bought ten badminton rackets! All of them were Lin Dan's favorite models! I carried these rackets to the hotel to wait for him. It was amazing! Somebody told me I looked like a swordsman because I had ten badminton rackets on my shoulders!

When Lin Dan checked in the hotel, he was surprised by my special image. He looked at me! He came towards me with a friendly smile! Unbelievable! I couldn't stay calm! My heart was beating fast and loudly. When he stood in front of me, my hand began to sweat. He told me he liked my look and signed on every racket on my back. Every one of them!

After he had signed his name, he went across to a crowd of fans, and then returned to his room. I looked at his back and felt some odd stares from his fans because so many fans were looking at me. I was wrong! They were looking at my rackets in a jealous way!

Now, I am looking at my rackets, touching them, and remembering the moments. All of them have Lin Dan's autograph. I will treasure them forever!
