2021/2022 Notice to Parents No. A15_e
Hand in Hand We Strive for Perfection

Dear Parents,

2020-2021 was an exceptional year for everyone of us, students, parents and the School alike, when real-time lessons intertwined with face-to-face learning in view of the pandemic that never subsided. I would like to draw your kind attention to the following important issues:

Be rule-abiding and self-disciplined, be man of integrity and perseverance

The last 3-year School Development Plan came to an end last academic year and is replaced by the present 3-year Plan that reads: To materialize curriculum reform while perfecting the sustainable framework of Fung Ling Spirit in alignment with the School motto of 'Illuminate Wisdom and Manifest Compassion'. The major concern of 2021-2022 stipulates 'To commence curriculum reform while consolidating the sustainable framework of Fung Ling Spirit'.

This year, we would like to further nurture the virtues of integrity and perseverance on the basis of rule-abiding spirit. We wish to urge students to be resilient in times of adversity and to be self-disciplined and proactive to honour promise and act to achieve life goals.

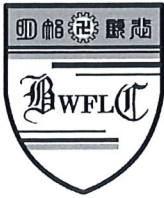

Build a fresh campus and lead a healthy life

The School advocates a healthy campus life and wishes to see spiritual well-being among our students. To this end, we strive to introduce a wholesome variety of extra-curricular activities to help students reduce addiction to internet or soft drugs and boost confidence to make well-informed decision when facing temptation.

The School has designed an array of healthy activities but is forced to suspend in the meantime in view of the stipulated half-day lesson arrangement. We desire for the soonest resumption when all staff and students have received 2 jabs of vaccination with 14 elapsed days as per instruction from EDB.

Self advancement admist versatility

As S6 students are sitting DSE in the upcoming April, the School will arrange for real-time lessons in the afternoon commencing 13th September, Monday, to empower their preparation.

Home-school cooperation through sunshine call

The School has always been laying emphasis on communication and co-operation with parents for fostering quality learning and living environment for our students. Class teachers will call all parents during 13th to 17th September for frank discussion of your child's school life.

Electronic notices to go green

Commencing this year, the School is adopting e-notices in full scale to ensure immediate access to school updates as well as to save on Earth resources for sustainability. The School will release up-to-date information via myID Channel Plus and hence parents and students are strongly advised to browse the School website and use this Home-school e-communication app myID Channel Plus. If your child encounters any difficulty in learning, please seek help from class or subject teachers.

Wish you all the best and let us work together for the best of your child.
