Joyful Learning Group Newsletter (Issue 1)

9th November, 2016

As the first school term unfolds, the school has been busy organizing various extra-curricular activities for all students, so that they would have plenty of chances to develop their interests and reach full potential. Let's take a look at some of the fun they had!

Meanwhile, the Joyful Learning Group, devoted to making the learning environment enjoyable for all newly admitted NCS students, has also been holding a series of activities to help them adapt to the new school life and get to know more about the culture of Hong Kong since last summer. Examples include outings such as visits to Wanchai and the Peak, as well as school-based activities like Cantonese Class, Speech Class, after-school tutorials and game sessions.
