LIFE-WIDE LEARNING DAY

A FULL-ON EXPERIENCE

Commissioned by the Education Bureau, the Life-wide Learning (LWL) encourages students to learn in real contexts and authentic settings.

IT'S TIME TO LEARN BEYOND THE CLASSROOM

The Life-Wide Learning Day, one of our highlighted learning activities, took place on 30th March. Led by class teachers, S.1 students were excited to get out of the classroom and visit Wan Chai. They discovered a lot of special features about this community and came to know more about its history and characters.

The class visited the Yellow House - a very special and old tenement house (Tong Lau) in Wan Chai. Built in 1928, the construction is well-known for its yellow outer wall. It has now been listed as Grade III Historic Building.

Stone Nullah Lane, named after the water channel previously located on it, was once ceded to the British under the Treaty of Nanjing in 1842. The street is noted for its many historical landmarks such as Pak Tai Temple, the headquarters of St. James' Settlement and the Blue House.

Integration Carnival

LEARNING IS, INDEED, NOT ALL ABOUT READING BOOKS.

Though their lingua franca is English, our Non-Chinese Speaking students are eager to immerse themselves into the local community. On 19th February, the Joyful Learning Group participated in the Love Unbounded Carnival in Wan Chai, which promotes mutual understanding among different ethnic
