2017/2018 Non-Chinese Speaking Students

Joyful Learning Group Newsletter (Issue 3)

20th April, 2018

As the second term began, students soon found themselves involved in a series of school activities. One of the biggest events was the Chinese New Year celebration in which all students were invited to participate in making sweet dumplings, as well as writing Fai Chun. Let's have a look at what the NCS students wished for this year!

Eager to Learn

Fai Chun Writing

NCS students were eager to learn about the Chinese traditional rituals of Lunar New Year. They also enjoyed their own handmade sweet dumplings during the Lantern Festival. Wish you all good health and success in your study!

Eager to Learn

Samantha, Quencie and Dhruv joined the Cantonese Talent Variety Challenge this year. They shared some Strange Chinese Stories. Their performances were granted merit certificates.

Ready for Service

The NCS students are always ready for service. Win Pa Pa from 2D, for example, has joined the volunteer team and visited the disabled people. Also, we have Vikrambir, Dhruv and Rubi helping out the Running Dictation Competition held during the English Week.
