2022/23 Non-Chinese Speaking Students Joyful Learning Group Newsletter Issue 1

After a whole year of half-day school, WE FINALLY resume normal-school days due to the easing of the pandemic this year. We are organizing more activities for our NCS students. To start with, let's see what our freshers have done during the summer!

Foodstep Journey

This summer, our pre-S1 students joined a workshop held by Food Angel. It aims to raise their awareness of cherishing food and caring for the community.

👉 Students listen to staff explaining the poverty situation in Hong Kong.

Eager to learn is one of the Fung Ling Spirits we want to pass on to our students. Not only do they acquire knowledge from books, but also get hands-on experience. Let's see some photos of the workshop.

👉 During the workshop, students learn how to make eco-enzyme detergent from orange peels.

"I want to come back again and do some more activities." said one of the participants.

👉 With VR headsets, students may use the first-person view to experience the food waste's journey.

Sports Competitions

In collaboration with the school sports teams, our group has organized inter-class ball games, including football, volleyball and basketball.

Since it was the last school year of the S.6 NCS students, they displayed excellent team-spirit and reaped great memories of their remarkable year. Congratulations to them for becoming the second runner-up in the volleyball competition!

Chinese Idiom Skit Workshop

Under the pandemic in the past few years, we could not organize many face-to-face activities. Hence, we are happy to introduce the Chinese Idiom Skit Workshop this year! Let's take a look at some snapshots of the workshop.

 The instructor is teaching them some on-stage drama skills to perform better.

This workshop aims to enhance students' understanding of Chinese idioms and the stories behind. The skits will be made into 3-minute videos to be broadcast at school. Can't wait for their creative performance!

 One of them is so excited to the video shooting.
